

The Actors Fund, for everyone
in entertainment.

JOSEPH P. BENINCASA

President and CEO, The Actors Fund

Joseph P. Benincasa is the President and CEO of The Actors Fund, the national human services organization that helps everyone in entertainment and the performing arts; he joined The Fund in 1988.

Mr. Benincasa oversees innovative programs including comprehensive social services, health care services, employment and training, and affordable, supportive and senior housing. The Actors Fund's headquarters are in New York City with regional offices in Los Angeles and Chicago, a nursing home in Englewood, NJ, and supportive housing residences in Manhattan, NY, Brooklyn, NY and West Hollywood, CA. He is also Chairman of the Actors Fund Housing Development Corporation which is building affordable, supportive and senior care residences for artists in major urban centers.

He serves on the board of directors of several organizations including Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS, Career Transition for Dancers, Times Square Alliance, Bio-Reference Laboratories, the YMCA of New York City and the Somerset Patriots, a minor league baseball team. He has been recognized with several honors including the inaugural Made in New York Award, presented by Mayor Michael Bloomberg, and Brooklyn's Italian of the Year, presented by Borough President Marty Markowitz. He served as chair of the New York Society of Association Executives in 2007, has lectured on not-for-profit management at Duke University and the New School and served on the Tony Administration and Nominating Committees, and on the Board of Directors of the St. Peter's University Medical Center. He was recently awarded an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters by Centenary College and has been appointed by the New York State Attorney General to review laws related to not-for-profit reporting and governance.

Mr. Benincasa graduated from St. Joseph's University, earned a Masters from Rutgers University and attended the Graduate Business School at Fordham University. He is happily married and has three children.